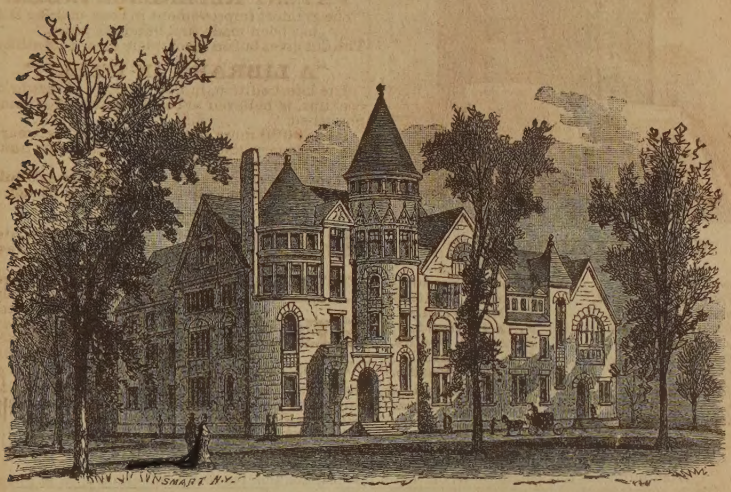
OBERLIN CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.



This cut shows the splendid building in process of erection for the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, the central portion of which is already in use. It is built of stone, and is the munificent gift of Dr. and Mrs. Lucien C. Warner, of New York city. When completed it will have a front of 150 feet on Professor street and 120 feet on College street, and will be the finest building ever erected exclusively for the uses of a music school. It will contain ample accommodations for the Conservatory in the way of offices, library, lesson, and practice rooms, besides a fine concert hall, and will be heated by steam and supplied with an elevator.

The attention of music students is invited to the unequalled combination of advantages offered at this Conservatory.

(1) It is carried on in a preëminently religious atmosphere. Its teachers are all Christian men and women, who belive that the highest attainments in music need not and should not be purchased, as they too often are, with a lapse from good habits or the loss of Christian faith.

(2) Its instruction is of the most thorough sort. It aims to give that broad and substanial culture in music which goes much further than the mere ability to sing a song or thrum an instrument.

(3) Its charges are very low. The entire expenses of a music-student for a college year need not exceed $300 or $350, and with careful economy may be brought still lower.

(4) Those who wish to give only a part of their time to music are able to pursue specia studies, under the best of teachers, in any of the other departments of Oberlin College.

Nearly five hundred students were in attendance at this Conservatory last year, and it has more applications every year for teachers, organists, etc., than it can fill from its graduates. For catalogues and fuller particulars, address Prof. F. B. Rice, Director, Oberlin, Ohio.

THE NEW ENGLAND CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

Located in the Heart of Boston,

Is the Oldest Conservatory in America,

And the Largest in the World.

REASONS FAVORING ITS SYSTEM OF INSTRUCTION.

THREE HUNDRED years established in Europe. The governments convened their ablest musicians for counsel and advice as to the best system to be adopted for imparting musical knowledge, and the unanimous verdict was CLASS instruction.

Laudable ambition to excel. Mind matched with mind sharpens intellect. We are constantly influenced by others. Competition is the life of trade, and also of study.

Diffidence overcome by public performance in Class, in Conservatory, and in Music Halls.

Each pupil has the benefit of whole hour lessons, and not ten or fifteen minutes, as is often falsely represented.

Economy. Cost of tuition only fifteen or twenty dollars for a single study, which, with the collateral advantages offered, amount to a hundred and twenty-five hours of instruction each term. The largest conservatories of Europe do not provide half this number.

Pupils are carefully graded according to proficiency, and promoted as their progress requires.

Mendelssohn says: "It has advantages over private instruction: it produces industry, spurs on to emulation, and preserves against one-sidedness of education and taste."

The musical atmosphere of the Conservatory is conducive to broader culture.

The best instructors educated in Europe receive their education at Conservatories.

A finished musical education is attainable, from the first rudiments to final graduation; and to-day the NEW ENGLAND CONSERVATORY can point with honest pride to hundreds of her students who are filling important positions in Boston and throughout the land.

"Harper's Monthly" characterizes it as the "Model Music School of the Age."

Evening classes are formed each term, in order that those otherwise occupied during the day may have the same instruction as day scholars. Private lessons are given, if preferred, at teachers' regular rates.

Reduction in prices of admission to the finest concerts in the city are frequently made.

Oratory and Languages also taught. Our School of Elocution is larger, and affords more advantages than any other in America.

Students in the Conservatory course can pursue ALL ENGLISH BRANCHES under able instructors. Art Department for Drawing, Painting, and Modelling, second to none in the country.

The increased facilities of this institution, and its important connections with the BOSTON UNIVERSITY, enable it to offer by far the best privileges for musical and literary culture that can possibly be obtained in this country; and, along with the COLLEGE OF MUSIC OF BOSTON UNIVERSITY, affords advantages supplementary to the Conservatory course fully equal in breadth and completeness to those of any European institution.

The general musical advantages of Boston, it being acknowledged the best patron of music of our American cities. Over seven hundred public concerts are given in a single season, and access to libraries containing over eight thousand musical works.

Home Department. Fine appointments, including rooms and board for five hundred lady students, in the heart of Boston, confessedly the musical, literary, and art centre of America. The Director, Preceptress, Matron, and Family Physician reside in the Home.

Excellent board and rooms for gentlemen secured at moderate rates.

The city affords many facilities to aid in defraying expenses. Many of our students avail themselves of these opportunities.

Over thirty thousand students have attended the Conservatory. These could not all be solicited personally; hence, there must be some way to account for this number.

The New England Conservatory of Music procures situations for pupils as teachers, choristers, organists, etc.

Calendar giving full information of the Conservatory, School of Elocution, School of Modern Languages, School of Orchestral and Band Instruments, Artists' Course, Literary Course, Art School, and College of Music of Boston University, will be furnished on application.

ABBOT ACADEMY,

FOR YOUNG LADIES. FIFTY-SIXTH YEAR.

ANDOVER, MASS.

The full course of study covers four years, and embraces all the usual academical studies, special attention being given to Mental and Moral Philosophy, English and General Literature, the History of Art, and to the Latin, French and German Languages. Superior advantages are afforded in Music, Drawing, Painting and Elocution. Pupils are received for a single year or more.

This Academy enjoys many incidental advantages through the other literary institutions in the same village, while easy access to Boston and Cambridge brings within its reach fine Music, Art Galleries, Museums, Cabinets, and the Botanical Garden, to all of which, classes, with their teachers, have occasional access. The Academy has a fine Clark Telescope, good working cabinets, models, and apparatus of its own.

The domestic arrangements are peculiarly homelike. The school is divided into three separate families in separate houses, each under its own matron and teachers. One of these families is made up wholly of pupils in French, in which language the daily table-talk is carried on under the direction of the French teacher. Another family is occupied with German in like manner. The grounds are spacious and tasteful, forming an attractive part of the quiet and pleasant village.

The school has been successfully conducted for twenty years by the same principal teachers, whose constant endeavor is to so educate girls that they may mature into healthful, cultivated, earnest, Christian womanhood.

The total expenses for board, including fuel, lights and washing, and for tuition, except music and drawing, is $300 per annum.

Application for admission or information should be made to

PREFATORY NOTE.

THIS issue is made by the direction of the National Council of the Congregational Churches assembled at Concord, N. H., in 1883.

By order of the Council a copy is sent to each church and one to each minister by mail, post-paid.

The addresses of the officers and committees of the National Council will be found on page 217, and of the State organizations upon page 218 and those immediately following. The addresses of officers of our benevolent societies are on pages 45–56; of the professors of the theological seminaries on pages 57–65.

The next session of the National Council will be held with the Union Park Church, Chicago, Ill., beginning Thursday, Oct. 11, 1886, at 10 o'clock A. M., and will doubtless continue into the following week.

The attention of the Statistical Secretaries is called to the following recommendation of the National Council. (See Minutes 1877, page 87.)

It is also recommended that certain other statistics be reported once in five years, beginning in 1880: —

1. Value of house of worship and chapel, and land on which they stand.
2. Date of erection of house of worship.
3. Value of parsonage.
4. Amount of funds, not including parsonage.
5. Amount of indebtedness.
6. Salary of minister, including value of use of parsonage.
7. Amount of all parish expenses (in the year of the report), including salary.

Some States gather most of these items ; others give few; but no one gives them all. The year 1885 is the second year assigned for the collection of these special statistics.

WORDS OF THE COMPILER.

THE Year-Book for 1885, presents itself to its friends and to the churches with the new year. The diligence and cordial co-operation of the various State secretaries have helped the compiler to overcome the delays of previous years, and they will share his satisfaction in the result. It is believed that real progress in the line of needful improvement has been made, and that in the fulness and accuracy of its details the Year-Book for 1885 will compare favorably with its predecessors. That there is much to be desired and sought for in the same direction is not less clear. It may be of service if a few points are mentioned:—

1. The reports from many churches are inconsistent with themselves from year to year. The net gain or loss shown by the additions and removals does not correspond with the difference in the total membership reported. It is not in the power of any secretary, State or National, to make the summaries, which incorporate such reports, consistent. The remedy can only come from the clerks or pastors, who make such reports to their local conferences, and who betray the fact that they keep no proper lists of the members for whom they are responsible. The effect on the summary this year is that the apparent net gain shown by the additions and removals, 11,773, becomes only 5,340 in the increase of total membership. In the course of years the latter figures are the more accurate test of real progress. Removals fail to be reported at the time they occur, and the result appears, perhaps years after, in a revision of the list, and the dropping of names without account.

2. The list of ministers needs more careful attention. First names and ordination dates are often wanting. These the compiler had supplied as far as possible; but if secretaries in their State Minutes would include and insist upon these items, they would contribute much to the historic value of the Year-Book. And every minister owes it to himself to report these facts. They are important to his own identity, and the absence of them, especially of the date of ordination, is liable to convey a shadow of suspicion. Inquiry for these items not long since disclosed the unworthiness of a man whose name was on the list, and has checked a career of imposture.

In some States licentiates are included in the list of ministers; in others, ministers who are ordained and supplying churches are not included, unless they have become members of the local organization. It is not an easy task for the Year-Book to thread its way consistently through such diversities. The latter class of ministers it has been the custom to insert with a star to designate the lack of full ecclesiastical standing, but some States never give the star, and the compiler can hardly venture to guess to whom it belongs; nor is it safe to leave him to insert, even with a star, all names not included in the alphabetical list of the State to which they belong.

3. The evil of various dates for the statistics of different States, and of the long time which elapses before some of them can appear in the Year-Book, is widely felt, but the remedy does not appear. The suggestion of the last National Council that the States should all fix upon dates between June 1 and October 1 has met with little response. In view of this fact the Provisional Committee at a recent meeting instructed the secretary to correspond with the State secretaries, and submit the inquiry, whether they would favor a change, fixing January 1 as a uniform date for all the States, the gathering and tabulating the returns as rapidly as was practicable, and the issue of the Year-Book in the spring. The most effectual way to reach the secretaries and all who are interested in the subject seems to be, to state the proposition here, — and I beg leave to do so, — asking all to give it such careful consideration and early response as may guide the committee in deciding whether it will be wise to present the plan to the National Council at its meeting in Chicago next year. Advantages and objections will at once suggest themselves ; which have the greater weight?

The improvement in the State Minutes, in fulness, distinctness of summaries, and accuracy of detail, deserves notice. Some have long been models in these particulars, and others approach the same standard. The alphabetic alarrangement of the churches in the statistical table has been adopted by all the large States, except Kansas, Maine, Michigan, Ohio, and Vermont, and its economy as well as convenience must soon commend it to these States also. Trifling divergencies from the Year-Book's order of columns in the table occasionally occur, from which the gain is not apparent; the annoyance is.

Complaint is made of the "waste" of Year-Books in distributing them to all the churches; that many are lost in mails and post-offices. But this distribution, it should be remembered, is made by the explicit order of the Council. The Publishing Committee has no discretion; it has only to discharge the duty as carefully as possible. That losses will occur in sending an edition of 8,000 copies through the mails, is a matter of course; but that the losses in circulating the Year-Book are comparatively few is confidently affirmed. Most of these would be avoided if the Minutes always gave the post-office of a church, when the names of church and post-office are not the same. It is not enough to give in some other place the post-office of the clerk or superintendent, for these may differ from that of the church, as that of the minister often does. The only safe way is to give the post-office, as the Year-Book does, to the best of its ability, in immediate connection with the name of the church itself whenever it differs from that name.

A remarkable average is shown in the age of the ministers whose deaths are reported. The highest average previously recorded during the ten years in which this compiler has gathered the Vital Statistics for the Congregational Quarterly and the Year-Book was sixty-eight years. This year it stands at seventy years and six months, and since the close of the record five deaths have occurred, which, if they had been included, would have raised this average to more than seventy-one years. The Rev. George W. Blagden, D D., Rev. Mortimer Blake, D. D., Rev. Stephen A. Loper, Rev. Joseph H. Payne, and the venerable Jotham Sewall, of Bangor, Me., are the brethren referred to, and they will be included in the next annual record. An alphabetical index to these statistics for five years is added, and will be found useful.

HENRY A. HAZEN, Secretary.

CONGREGATIONAL LIBRARY, BOSTON, Dec. 29, 1884.

TREASURER'S STATEMENT.

At the meeting of the National Council in Concord the following resolutions were passed by unanimous vote, after accepting the report of the Finance Committee: —

Resolved, 1. — That the Treasurer, assisted by the Chairmen of the Provisional Committee and Committee on Finance, be, and is hereby authorized to solicit of individuals and churches the sum of $3,000, to be held as a reserve to meet exigencies.

Resolved, 2. — That the treasurers of the State Congregational bodies be urged to the earliest possible collection and transmission of their respective collections.

Resolved, 3. — That the churches be invited to contribute, to support the work of this Council, two cents for each church member for each of the years 1884, 1885, and 1886.

Resolved, 4. — That the action of the Treasurer in giving early information to the churches of the state of the treasury is approved, and that he be authorized to act at his discretion in securing relief in time to come.

Resolved, 5. — That the report of the Treasurer, to be published in the next Year-Book, include all payments made by the churches before Jan. 1, 1884.

The Provisional Committee at their meeting in Boston, Sept. 19, 1884, finding the treasury still greatly embarrassed by the delay of returns from the churches, appointed Rev. F. A. Noble, of Chicago, Rev. Henry Fairbanks, of St. Johnsbury, Vt., and Samuel B. Capen, Esq., of Boston, a committee to raise by special appeals to individuals $3,500. The first resolution above contemplates some such action, and the result thus far is the receipt by the treasurer of $1,194.24. A few subscriptions are made conditional on the receipt of the full amount, and are not included in the above sum. The names of donors to this reserve fund will be given when it is completed, and will be reported to the next Council. This money is not included in the following statement of payments by the churches.

The twelfth section of the will of Mrs. Lucius J. Knowles, late of Worcester, Mass., reads thus: "I give and bequeath unto the National Council of the Congregational Churches of the United States, the sum of ten thousand dollars, to be applied in aid of aged and disabled ministers of the gospel, or their wives or orphan children, under the direction of said Council by such committee or individuals as may be appointed by it for that purpose."

An act of incorporation is necessary to enable the Council to discharge this trust, and the necessary steps will be taken to secure this. The executors express a desire to pay over the bequest as soon as it can be done by them legally.

The following States have paid in full all assessments up to Jan. 1, 1885: Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Indiana, Indian Territory, Louisiana, Minnesota, Missouri, New Hampshire, North Carolina.

Where the plan is adopted of putting the treasurer of the State body in direct communication with the churches, and collecting the local and general assessments at the same time and in one sum, it is found to yield the most satisfactory results. If this were the practice of all our State bodies, it would doubtless relieve the treasury of the National Council, and be quite as agreeable to the churches. On the first day of July, 1884, the treasurer was compelled to borrow $4,302.07 to settle all the bills then due. More than half of this he had carried with interest since the last meeting of the Council. If all the churches had paid up to that date, there would have been a handsome balance in the treasury for the bills of 1885, which come mostly the first two months of the year. The following schedule shows how much each State body has paid to the present treasurer, how much is due from each on previous assessments, and the assessment of each for 1885: —

This statement is brought down to Dec. 11, 1884. It is not possible to keep the accounts open longer without delaying the issue of the Year-Book. The bills from the last meeting of the Council to this date, including a balance against the treasury at that time of $1,018.59, and not including a note against the Council of $2,000, amount to $7,041.86. Of this, $4,872.85 is for printing and distributing the Minutes and Year-Book, as ordered by the Council. Salary and expenses of Secretary, $439.15. Expenses of Registrar, $34.87. Salary of Treasurer, $250. Interest paid on loans, $323. Expenses connected with meeting of the Council, printing, postage, express, and other small items, — total, $103.40.

The entire receipts from the churches during the above period are $5,711.28. This does not include the $510 received for advertisements, or the $1,194.24 paid in to meet the debt. If these figures do not move the State bodies to a more prompt payment of the assessments, no pleading of those who carry the burden will.

LAVALETTE PERRIN, Treasurer.

Note. — The limitations of the tables do not in all cases admit exactness. In the table of theological education, students who did not graduate are counted, and without distinction from graduates; but a name occurring in more than one seminary list is not repeated; and in the college lists a few students who were not alumni are counted with the graduates.

The editor renews his earnest request to friends and to the secretaries of the State bodies for prompt information of the death of Congregational ministers, and for full and exact information on the model of the sketches above given. Obituary and eulogy beyond, it is impossible to use here.

Rev. SIMON J. HUMPHREY, D. D., 112 Washington Bd., Chicago, Ill.

The American Board, the oldest Foreign Missionary Society in the United States, was formed at Bradford, Mass., June 29, 1810, and held its first meeting at Farmington, Conn., Sept. 5 of the same year. Its record of seventy-five years will be reviewed at its next annual meeting, to be held in Boston, Oct. 13–16, 1885. Its mission fields now occupied are, Northern and Western Mexico; the Hawaiian and Micronesian Islands of the Pacific; Northern and Southern Japan; Northern China; Shanse in Northwestern China; Foochow and Hong Kong in Southern China; Ceylon; Madura, in Southern India; the Maratha field in Western India, including the important centres of Bombay and Ahmednagar; East Central Africa; the Zulus of Southern Africa; West Central Africa; Eastern Turkey from Mardin to Erzroom, including the educational centre Harpoot; Central Turkey, including the important cities of Aintab and Marash; Western Turkey, from Trebizond to Constantinople, including Cesarea, Marsovan, Smyrna, Broosa, and Nicomedia; European Turkey, from Constantinople to Samokov in Bulgaria, including Monastir in Macedonia and Philippopolis in East Roumelia; Austria, emphasizing the Bohemian work in Prague; and Northern and Northwestern Spain, this work centring in San Sebastian on the Bay of Biscay, and in Zaragoza, in the Province of Aragon.

This wide-extended work embraces direct evangelistic effort through missionaries and native helpers; an immense educational trust, extending from the primary school to the college and theological seminary; Sunday-school instruction; the preparation, publication, and circulation in different languages, of books, tracts, and newspapers; assistance in the erection of buildings for churches and schools; grants in aid to feeble churches and to native home-missionary societies; the humane service of missionary physicians, sometimes in the care of large dispensaries and hospitals; also charitable ministry, continuous and varied, to the sick, the poor, and the oppressed.

Pastors in presenting the foreign work to their churches are desired to emphasize this fact, that these several departments of labor on the foreign field are carried on under one administration, and that contributions, therefore, should be proportionately enlarged. If one half of the benevolent contributions of the churches should be given to this broad work of reaching the unevangelized millions of other lands, it would probably not be too large a proportion.

The Woman's Boards, which co-operate with the American Board, are doing a royal service, not only securing, mainly from the women of the churches, large contributions, — the annual average of which, during recent years, has been over $100,000, — but also educating and training children and young people to an intelligent interest in missionary work. These Boards can be addressed at No. 1 Congregational House, Boston, at 75 Madison Street, Chicago, and at 1312 Taylor Street, San Francisco.

The latest statistics of the American Board report 22 missions, 826 stations and outstations, 413 missionaries and assistant missionaries, 1,821 native laborers, 292 churches with over 21,000 members, nearly 2,400 of these received on confession of faith during the past year; 88 high schools and seminaries for young men and young women, with nearly 4,000 students, and a total of nearly 37,000 children and youth under Christian instruction. The appropriations for 1885 already amount to over $600,000, and it is desirable that the receipts for this memorable year should reach, if possible, $750,000, — a thank-offering of $10,000 for each of the 75 years of our history. An average advance of donations of about fifty per cent will secure this honorable record. Attention is called to the Missionary Herald, the Mission Dayspring, and Life and Light; also to the CHILDREN'S MORNING STAR MISSION, a special for Sunday schools. Our main instrumental reliance is upon the pastors of churches, themselves full of missionary information and zeal.

AMERICAN COLLEGE AND EDUCATION SOCIETY.

FORMED by the union, in 1874, of the "American Education Society" and the "Society for the promotion of Collegiate and Theological Education." The American Education Society was organized and received its charter from Massachusetts in the year 1816. The College Society, as the other organization was popularly called, was formed in 1843. It was for years a voluntary association without a charter. In 1872 it received a charter also from the State of Massachusetts. These two organizations were brought together under a new charter from the same State in May, 1874.

OFFICERS, 1884–85. (Office, No. 10 Congregational House, Boston, Mass.)

President. — Hon. NATHANIEL SHIPMAN, of Hartford, Conn.
Vice-Presidents.—Rev. ISAAC P. LANGWORTHY, D. D., Boston, and SAMUEL HOLMES, New York City.
Secretary. —Rev. JOHN A. HAMILTON, Boston.
Treasurer. — JAMES M. GORDON, Boston.
Assistant Treasurer. — Rev. A. H. CLAPP, D. D., Bible House, New York.

Income for the year ending April 30, 1884, $110,372.14. Of the whole income, $88,137.10 was contributed for colleges and paid to them. The sum of $18,550 was paid to students fitting for the ministry. The balance was for current expenses.

In both departments the Society has had a large agency in the formation of society throughout the great West. The men who were pioneers in the work of preaching the gospel in the new settlements, and in the founding of churches and schools, were largely educated by this Society The colleges which are now among the foremost in these Western fields were largely built up by the same agency.

The whole number of young men assisted by the Society in their studies for the ministry since 1816 is 7,076. The institutions at the West which have been assisted by the Society since 1843 are the following, viz.: Western Reserve, Illinois, Wabash, and Marietta Colleges, and Lane Theological Seminary. These five are the institutions which the Society took under its care at the beginning, in 1843. Those which have since been received on the list are Knox, Beloit, Thayer, Wittenberg, Oberlin, and Berea Colleges, the College of California, Pacific University, Olivet, Ripon, Iowa, Carleton, Doane, Drury, Washburn, and Colorado Colleges, and Pacific Theological Seminary.

During the past year Olivet and Washburn Colleges, and Pacific Theological Seminary have passed off the list, and Whitman College, Walla Walla, Washington Territory, has been taken on.

The number of young men receiving assistance from the Society during the last financial year is 336.

At the time when the Education Society began its work of helping young men into the Christian ministry, in the year 1816, the condition of things in this country was very peculiar. The great movement of emigration toward the West was setting in with strength. The American Board had been organized a few years before, and the cause of foreign missions was taking strong hold upon the churches. But "the laborers were few." Ever since the close of the Revolutionary war, the churches had been in a confused and preoccupied state, and the number of men coming forward for the work of the ministry was alarmingly small. It was in such a state of things that this Society began its enterprise. Through the aid thus afforded, and through the impulses thus imparted, a host of living preachers was raised up to go with the moving colonies out into the fields of the West, or to go far hence to the Gentiles, to proclaim the Gospel of salvation through Jesus Christ. A work of inestimable importance for the Christianizing and civilizing of our own land was accomplished by this instrumentality. The ministers raised up by this Society became to a large extent the pioneers in the way of founding churches, schools, colleges, throughout all those Western fields, while in foreign lands half the missionaries laboring under the care of the American Board had been brought forward in the same way.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I do hereby give and bequeath to the "AMERICAN COLLEGE AND EDUCATION SOCIETY" the sum of —— dollars, to be paid within —— months after my decease, and to be applied to the uses and purposes of that Society.

☞ Thirty dollars constitutes an honorary membership.

THE AMERICAN CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION

WAS organized May 25, 1853, at Boston, and received its charter from the Massachusetts Legislature, April 12, 1854. Its present officers are : —

SAMUEL D. WARREN, Boston, President.
RUFUS S. FROST, Boston, Chairman of Board of Directors.
SAMUEL T. SNOW, Boston, Treasurer.
Rev. ISAAC P. LANGWORTHY, D. D., Boston, Corresponding Secretary and Librarian.
Rev. DANIEL P. NOYES, Wilmington, Mass., Recording Secretary.
Miss MARY E. STONE, Boston, Assistant Librarian.

DIRECTORS. — Rev. Alonzo H. Quint, D. D.; Rev. Henry M. Dexter, D. D.; Hon. Rufus S. Frost; Rev. N. G. Clark, D. D.; Hon. James White; Frank Wood; Rev. Jos. T. Duryea, D. D.; Rev. John L. Withrow, D. D.; Rev. Joshua Coit; Marquis F. Dickinson; Edward A. Studley; S. Brainerd Pratt; Rev. I. N. Tarbox, D. D.; Rev. Michael Burnham, together with the Treasurer and Secretaries.

The object of this Association is " to establish and perpetuate the religious history and literature of New England, and for the erection of a suitable building for the accommodation of the same, and for the use of charitable societies ; also to do such acts as may promote the interest of Congregational churches," etc.

Its library is intended for reference, having as its specialties everything published by the Pilgrims and Puritans, and their predecessors, contemporaries, and successors, which states or illustrates the principles and polity of Congregationalism, its history, its doctrine, its influence, and indeed the same things in regard to every denomination ; thus everything ecclesiastical, — theology, controversy, results of councils, sermons, church manuals, minutes of religious bodies, every one ; Year-Books, and all such like ; also all local histories, county, State, and United States histories, genealogies, centennial, ordination, funeral, and all historical sermons, all commentaries on the Scriptures, every biography, national, State, and municipal statistics, printed reports of all kinds, catalogues, obituary records, and inaugurals of all our literary institutions, together with any manuscripts, autographs, or mementos which relate to the objects above named.

On the 20th of May, 1884, the library had 30,699 books — 6,389 of which were duplicates — and over 130,000 pamphlets, including duplicates, secured almost exclusively by gifts, as there has never been a dollar appropriated from the building fund with which to buy a book, nor can there be until the present onerous debt is greatly reduced. Duplicates furnish a basis for exchanges, for which the Librarian has large facilities, and of which he avails himself to the uttermost ; and in this way he can assure all kindly disposed persons that they can send him no printed pamphlet or book that he cannot make useful here.

The library has now more of the early publications of our country and of the mother country which illustrate the principles and relate the deeds of our first settlers than any other public library in the United States; but it is still lacking very much of this sort that is scattered here and there, essentially useless where it is, but would be invaluable here; also much more of the later and contemporaneous issues of the same general character found in every parish and town more or less. Now, let these be collected and sent here by some good friend in each church, as a few have already done.

The Congregational House is a four-story granite structure, one hundred and three feet on Beacon Street, and ninety-three feet on Somerset Street, having stores on lower floors on Beacon Street, and rooms above for the A. B. C. F. M., the Woman's Board, the American College and Education Society, American Missionary Association, City Missionary Society, Woman's Home Missionary Society, Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, American Peace Society, the Congregationalist, etc. The fire-proof library room is in a connected building; accessible, light, pleasant, safe, and has capacity for more than 100,000 volumes.

The great WANT of this Association is the hearty sympathy and co-operation of every Congregationalist, expressed in "one fair contribution" from each of the more than 2,500 Congregational churches that have not made it; also gifts of twenties, fifties, hundreds, and thousands from the more highly favored; testamentary gifts, if not earlier bestowed. Then this great property would be disencumbered, and all our strictly benevolent societies would be forever free from rent, thus insuring a good dividend to the cause of Christ upon every benefaction.

Let all remittances and communications be addressed to

ISAAC P. LANGWORTHY, Cor. Secretary, Boston, Mass.

THE AMERICAN CONGREGATIONAL UNION.

President. — Rev. E. B. WEBB, D. D., Boston, Mass.
Corresponding Secretary. — Rev. L. H. COBB, D. D., New York City.
Treasurer. — H. O. PINNEO, 59 Bible House, New York City.

Y., for three years, 1884 to 1887; Rev. WM. HAYES WARD, D. D., Newark, N. J.; Rev. S. H. VIRGIN, New York, N. Y.; JACOB L. HALSEY, JOHN WILEY, Brick Church, N. J.; GEORGE WILCOX, Brooklyn, N. Y., for three years, 1883 to 1886; Rev. JAMES G. ROBERTS, D. D., Rev. R. P. HIBBARD, HENRY HEATH, ALONZO ALFORD, Brooklyn, N. Y.; NORMAN A. CALKINS, New York, N. Y., for two years, 1883 to 1885.

The Board meets regularly the second Wednesday of every month.

Financial Statement. — For church building, balance on hand May 1, 1884, $22,097.28. Total receipts for church building May 1 to Oct. 31, 1884, $24,932.52. Total resources for six months for church building, $47,029.80.

Paid grants to aid in completing forty-six houses of worship, May 1 to Oct. 31, 1884, $33,116.00. Other disbursements, $4,583.52. Balance on hand Nov. 1, 1884, $9,330.28. Pledged, Nov. 1, 1884, to fifty churches, $24,125.00. Pledged in excess of funds, $14,794.72.

For parsonage building, balance, May 1, 1884, $4,743.69. Receipts for parsonage building, May 1, 1884, to Oct. 31, 1884, $3,529.01. Total for parsonages in six months, $8,272.70. Paid nine parsonage loans, $2,575.00. Fourteen parsonage loans, outstanding Oct. 31, 1884, $5,063.00. Balance in treasury Nov. 1, 1884, $5,697.70.

IMPERATIVE DEMANDS. — At the date of this writing, forty-eight applications for aid in church building, asking for $22,750.00, and five applications for aid in parsonage building, calling for $2,000.00, are on hand, waiting for funds to come in as a basis of aid. Some of these churches are in danger of losing the ground gained, and the hard-earned money they have expended to carry the work to where it now is.

Not a dollar above absolute needs were the figures of the National Council. The $200,000 they recommended for this work is already covered by calls within the year. Nothing is more vital to home missions than the largest success of this branch of the work. About six hundred of our churches are still unhoused. In what way can wealth be turned to better account than in putting these churches in condition to live and work for God?

THE HOME MISSIONARY, a monthly magazine, published by the Society, at sixty cents a year, including postage, gives a running account of the progress of the work in all parts of the country, largely from the pens of the superintendents and missionaries personally engaged in it. The monthly issue is 25,000 copies. An ANNUAL REPORT sums up the results of the year. Leaflets and Tracts for the times are published as occasion calls, designed to help pastors, Sunday-school officers, and friends of home missions generally, in awakening and keeping alive an intelligent, practical, growing interest in the work. These may be had, free of charge, at any time, by addressing the officers of the Society at the Bible House.

For nearly fifty-nine years the Society has been organizing churches in the South and West, and aiding in the support of their ministers till those churches are able to assume the whole expense. Its missionaries have from the first organized Sunday schools, provided proper teachers for them, and by watchful oversight have secured their permanence and highest usefulness.

In connection with the labor of its missionaries, 4,509 churches have been organized, and 2,251 have come to self-support. It has collected and disbursed in cash $10,512,400.11, and in clothing, books, and other supplies, largely the offerings of Christian women, more than $1,476,000; in all, $11,988,400. The additions to the churches have been 318,158.

In 1883 a Woman's Department was opened, with Mrs. H. M. SHELTON, as secretary. Its object is to interest the women of our churches, all over the country, and through them the children, more directly in the work; not to the diminishing of their helpful labor in the way of home-missionary boxes (of clothing, etc.), but to secure also their gifts of money, for the support of teachers, particularly in fields under the sway of Mormons and Jesuits. Their aid in this line is steadily growing. The Woman's Home Missionary Association, having its office in Boston, is, by the payment of $600 a year, sustaining a teacher in the Indian Territory, commissioned by the American Home Missionary Society.

The number of missionaries employed in its fifty-eighth year (1883-84) was 1,342, 949 of them in States and Territories west and south of New York. They preached regularly in 2,930 stations, and at frequent intervals in many hundreds more. The number of Sunday-school and Bible-class scholars was 116,314. The additions to the churches were 7,907; 4,099 of them on confession of Christ. Churches organized, 149; reached self-support, 52.

The fifty-eighth year's receipts were, in cash, $385,004.10; in supplies, $62,148.21; in all, $447,152.31.

At least $500,000 in cash are needed this year properly to sustain the missionaries now in the field. To take up only such new work as the providence and Spirit of God manifestly call upon the Society to assume at once, $100,000 more are imperatively required, and at the annual meeting of the Society at Saratoga, in June 1883, it was voted to appeal to the churches for this amount, as an Emergency Fund for new work. At nearly every meeting of the Executive Committee, chosen men are sent to new fields at the front, where they are most needed, but where their support involves heavy outlay by the Society. For securing the means essential to the carrying on of this great work the Society depends, under GOD, on the zealous co-operation of the pastors and members of the Congregational churches of the land.

OFFICERS.

President. — Rev. F. A. Noble, D. D., 534 Washington Boulevard.
Rec. Secretary. — Rev. G. S. F. Savage, D. D., 112 Washington Bd.

Treasurer. — Mr. Wm. H. Hubbard, 438 La Salle Avenue.
District Secretary. — Rev. A. E. Winship, 6 Congregational House, Boston.
Agent in the Field. — Mr. Isaac Huse, Jr., Salt Lake City, Utah.

Object. — The promotion of Christian civilization in Utah and adjacent States and Territories, by the education of the children and youth under Christian teachers, and by the use of such other kindred agencies as may at any time be deemed wise.

PROGRESS.

During the year the number of its schools rose from nineteen to thirty-eight; the number of its teachers fron thirty-four to sixty-two; the number of its pupils from 1,613 to 2,925. It property was largely increased. It added eight to the number of its schoolhouses, and gained a controlling interest for school purposes in two others. It obtained sites, yet to be occupied, in four other towns. It rented ten buildings for school uses, one of which was a Mormon church, and several others were owned by Mormons, one of whom was a high official.

Of its 2,925 pupils, about 2,000 were in Utah, and about 1,500 were of parentage that was or had been Mormon. Beside its day schools, it gathered Sabbath schools, evening and singing schools; held religious meetings and temperance meetings; circulated books; and gave lectures on various subjects. Its schools were grouped in circuits, so that during a portion of the year sixteen Mormon communities were reached for religious service by five missionaries of the A. H. M. S., to whom the privilege of holding meetings in our schoolhouses is gladly accorded. One church was formed during the year, and it is confidently expected that others will soon follow.

RESULTS.

In answer to the question, What are Christian schools doing in Utah? the last report gives six answers: (1) They are centres of discussion; (2) They are giving light to Mormons touching the real feeling of the nation toward them; (3) They are inspiring a spirit of patriotism; (4) They are opening a new world to the children; (5) They are lending great moral support to such Mormon women as resist polygamy; (6) They are laying the foundation of permanent institutions, churches, and academies.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The following statement covers the time from May 1, 1883, to July 1. 1884, a period of fourteen months: Receipts from all benevolent sources, $54,048. Total expenditures, $70,142; deficit July 1, $16,097. Deficit reduced, Oct. 5, to $11,500. The main items of expense were as follows: For realties, sites, and building, $20,819; for salaries of teachers, and expenses incidental to the schools, $35,748; for Boston office, including expenses of Miss Carter on trip to Utah, and all other travelling expenses and salary, and salary of the District Secretary and his travelling expenses, printing, rent, etc., $4,640; for field expenses, including salary and travelling expenses of agent, and travelling expenses of teachers to their fields, and incidental expenses chargeable to all the schools but not easily separable and charged to respective schools, $4,351; for the Chicago office, including printing and travelling expenses, with a portion of the salary of the secretary, $1,927.

The cost from the first to the present time of the realties owned by the Commission is $32.301. This property is held in fee simple; is without incumbrance, and much of it would sell for more than the cost. In addition to this, the Commission, having furnished to the corporation of Salt Lake Academy for its building the sum of $23,000, which is secured for the purposes of Christian instruction by the strongest legal guaranty, and having under its entire management the property of the Las Vegas Academy, worth, by the estimate of its principal, not far from $15,000, now, at the beginning of the fifth year of its operations, controls, for the uses of Christian education, property to the amount of $70,301.

The last Session of the present Seminary year will commence on Monday, March 23, and continue till the Anniversary, Thursday, June 11, to be followed by a vacation of twelve weeks. The next Seminary year will begin on Thursday, September 10.

COURSE OF STUDY. — With an enlarged Faculty, a new and expanded curriculum has been introduced. The Junior year is devoted mainly to Biblical Exegesis and Introduction; the Middle year to Biblical and Systematic Theology; the Senior to Sacred Rhetoric, Pastoral Theology, and History of Christian Life and Doctrine. Systematic Theology is begun in the first year; also Biblical History, which is continued through the second. Lectures on Christianity and Science, the Scriptures, Elocution, with exercises in rhetoric and vocal culture continue through the course. Opportunity is given for instruction in Syriac, Arabic and other cognate Oriental languages.

FOURTH YEAR for advanced study. Each member of the Advanced Class chooses his studies, subject to approval by the Faculty, and receives from the professors in the departments chosen personal direction and assistance. Special facilities are afforded for private reading and research. Lectures are given to the whole class on topics pertaining to the higher and more difficult questions which are engaging the attention of Christian scholars and pastors. Scholarships ($200.00 each) are awarded to members of this class.

LIBRARY AND MUSEUM — The Library now numbers more than 42,000 volumes, is constantly increased, and is open every week-day for the examination and drawing of books. A full reference library will soon be opened on the ground floor of Brechin Hall. The Museum comprises objects relating to missionary life and work, a monumental slab from Nimroud, a relief model of Jerusalem, and a large and choice collection of Palestinian birds, animals, flowers, coins, inscriptions, photographs, etc.

A well-furnished Gymnasium is open to the use of the students.

LOCATION. — The Seminary was located with a view to the advantages of uninterrupted study. These advantages have been retained, and are accounted of increasing value. At the same time, through the rise and growth of cities in the immediate vicinity, the students of the Seminary have special opportunities for studying the various conditions of church work, and the different methods of preaching. Andover is within four miles of Lawrence, ten of Lowell and Haverhill, fifteen of Salem, and twenty of Cambridge and Boston The situation is remarkably healthful.

For information respecting Conditions of Membership, Honorary Scholarships, the Winkley Fellowship ($600), Expenses, and Pecuniary Aid, see Catalogue, which may be obtained by application to the President of the Faculty.

BANGOR THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, Bangor, Me.

FACULTY OF INSTRUCTION.

Rev. Levi L. Paine, D. D., Ecclesiastical History.
Rev. John S. Sewall, D. D., Sacred Rhetoric.

Rev. Charles J. H. Ropes, New Testament Language and Literature.
Rev. Francis B. Denio, Old Testament Language and Literature.

Terms of Admission. — Bangor Seminary is open to all denominations of Christians. Candidates for admission must produce testimony of their church membership and of their collegiate education. If they have not pursued a college course, they will be examined, and must exhibit mental training and attainments sufficient, in the judgment of the Faculty, to warrant their entering upon a course of theological study. Those whose age or circumstances forbid the pursuit of the complete course of study may, at the discretion of the Faculty, be admitted to the studies of the Middle year, and continue their course with the full privileges of the Seminary.

Course of Study. — Junior Year, Hebrew Grammar, Principles of Interpretation, Exegesis of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures; New Testament Greek; Introductory Philosophy, with text-books and lectures; Essays, and Lectures on Style and English Literature.

Middle Year, Systematic Theology; Ancient Church History; Exegetical studies continued; New Testament Greek continued; Vocal Culture and Oratory.

The Department of New Testament Greek has been added to the usual course in order to supplement the department of Exegesis by grammatical and lexical study of the language of the New Testament. It has been established not only for the benefit of those who have had a classical training, but also to provide instruction for those who enter the shorter course with only a rudimentary knowledge of the Greek. The instruction is at present given by the Exegetical professors.

Special Lectures. — A course of practical addresses on pastoral subjects is given each year by pastors selected for that service.

Preaching. — As it is believed to be conducive to the best professional training to combine practice with theory, students are encouraged during the Senior year to preach as opportunity offers, and so far as they may without interfering with their Seminary duties. They usually take a license to preach at the close of the Middle year; and during the vacation are employed as missionaries of the Maine Missionary Society. Through the remainder of their course they are frequently called upon to supply vacant churches or missionary outposts.

Post-graduate Scholarship. — A scholarship has recently been established in Bowdoin College for the purpose of aiding any student who, after graduating at the Seminary, desires to take a post-graduate year at the College.

Expenses. — Each student is charged two dollars a year for incidental expenses. There is no other charge for tuition, room, furniture, library, or any privilege of the Seminary. The dormitory has been thoroughly repaired and refitted. The rooms are carpeted and furnished. The income of the Washburn fund and some other funds, given expressly to aid members of the Seminary, will be distributed to those who need, and will amount to about half the expense of board.

Library. — The Seminary has an excellent library, numbering between fifteen and sixteen thousand volumes, specially selected to meet the wants of the students. There is a permanent library fund, with the income of which constant additions are made of the latest and most valuable literature.

The next Anniversary will occur on Wednesday, June 3, 1885.

The next Seminary year will open on Thursday, Sept. 10, 1885.

By its organization the Seminary is closely allied to the churches through the Pastoral Union, which annually elects the trustees.

The plan of instruction is so arranged as to make the study of the Bible the chief feature of the entire course. The patrons, guardians, and teachers of the Institution are persuaded that an exegetical and experimental knowledge of the Divine Word should be sought first of all by candidates for the gospel ministry. They also believe that scholarly investigation, controlled and tempered by the spirit of truth, justifies unfaltering adherence to the doctrinal system set forth in the creed of the Pastoral Union, to which the professors annually give their assent, and which is in accord with the historical belief of New England Congregationalism, as embodied in accredited formulas. The effort is made to bring the several departments into such relations as shall give both scientific and vital unity to the course of instruction.

It is the aim of each professor to strengthen, on the part of the students, the habit of personal investigation. Daily drills bring teachers and pupils into such close relations as favor mental activity and appropriate criticism, the purpose being to train as well as to teach, to illustrate correct methods while their results are presented.

Terms of Admission. — Candidates for admission are expected to produce evidence that they are members of some Christian church, and that they have graduated at some college, or have made such literary acquisitions as, in the opinion of the Faculty, are an equivalent preparation for theological studies. They will be examined in reference to their personal piety and their motives in seeking the ministry.

Besides lectures on Congregationalism, moot councils are held from time to time for the purpose of making the student familiar with the principles and usages of our Church Polity.

Instruction is provided for all the classes in ecclesiastical music throughout each year.

Expenses. — No charge is made for tuition, room rent, or the use of the library. The rooms are supplied with the necessary articles of furniture.

Arrangements for board, at a common table, are made by the trustees.

The average cost of board has been $3.50 per week. To aid in meeting this expense, several scholarships have been endowed. Further assistance will be furnished, in proportion to the necessities of each student, at the discretion of the Faculty. Fuel and lights may be estimated at from $10 to $15 the year for each room. The American Education Society renders aid to the amount of from $75 to $100 annually. Students who are licensed have occasional opportunities to preach for compensation.

Calendar. — There is but one term of study in the year, which begins on the second Thursday of September, and closes on the second Thursday of May. Students have opportunity in the long vacation to engage in some form of Christian activity, from which they may derive religious advantages and practical knowledge, as well as pecuniary benefit.

Persons desiring to join the Seminary are invited to address Prof. William Thompson, D. D., Dean of the Faculty, from whom they will receive any needed additional information.

DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY IN OBERLIN COLLEGE,

OBERLIN, OHIO.

Opened for service in 1835.

FACULTY.

Rev. JAMES H. FAIRCHILD, D. D., President, Finney Professor of Theology and Moral Philosophy.
Rev. WILLIAM G. BALLANTINE, Professor of Old Testament Language and Literature.
Rev. G. FREDERICK WRIGHT, Professor of New Testament Language and Literature.
Rev. ALBERT H. CURRIER, D. D., Holbrook Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. FRANK H. FOSTER, Professor of Church History and Positive Institutions.
Rev. WILLIAM B. CHAMBERLAIN, Instructor in Elocution.
Rev. A. HASTINGS ROSS, Special Lecturer on Church Polity.

The Department of Theology is open for the admission of students of every denomination. Applicants must furnish satisfactory evidence of Christian character. A full collegiate education is regarded as furnishing a normal preparation for the course in Theology. Those who are not graduates of reputable colleges are required to furnish evidence of culture in all essential points fully equivalent to that which is given by a college course, and are admitted only upon careful examination in the ordinary collegiate branches. Upon the satisfactory completion of the regular three years' course, the Academic Degree of Bachelor of Divinity (B. D.) is conferred.

COURSE OF STUDY. — First Year. — Hebrew, and Old Testament Exegesis; Harmony of the Gospels, and Theology of the New Testament; Natural Theology; Evidences of Christianity; Authority and Inspiration of the Scriptures.

Middle Year. — Systematic Theology; Hebrew Exegesis continued, and Literature of the Old Testament; Homiletics; Positive Institutions; lectures on the Epistles.

Senior Year. — History of the Church; History of Doctrine; Positive Institutions; Homiletics; written and extempore Sermons; Pastoral Theology; and lectures on The Relations of Science and Religion, and on the various forms of Scepticism.

LIBRARY. — The Libraries of the College contain over fifteen thousand volumes.

COUNCIL HALL, the building devoted exclusively to the Department of Theology, provides fully furnished rooms for fifty students. No expense is incurred for instruction, for the use of the libraries or of public rooms; and the students in Theology enjoy, without charge, the privileges of all the other departments of the College. The price of board is from $2.00 to $2.50 per week, or from $72 to $90 for the thirty-six weeks of the theological year. Fuel and lights will not cost more than $15. Add the charge of $5.00 per term for the care of the building, and the entire necessary expenses of the year (not including clothing, travelling expenses, and books) need not exceed $100.

Help is granted from scholarship funds contributed by friends of the Department and from the American Education Society. The amount ordinarily received from both these sources does not vary much from $150.

The opportunities for students to aid in meeting their expenses are sufficiently numerous. Some are employed as teachers in the Preparatory School connected with the College, and the amount received for teaching an hour each day exceeds the cost of board. Many vacant pulpits in the vicinity are supplied by theological students, for which compensation is rendered. During the summer vacation of fifteen weeks, all members of the Department may supply vacant pulpits in home-missionary and other fields; and such opportunities are abundant.

The year of study in this Department consists of thirty-five weeks, in three terms. The anniversary occurs Saturday, June 27, 1885. The next year begins Wednesday, Sept. 16, 1885.

PACIFIC THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, Oakland, Cal.

Opened for service June, 1869.

FACULTY.

Rev. Joseph A. Benton, D. D., Professor of Sacred Literature, and (pro tem.) of Philosophy.
Rev. George Mooar, D. D., Professor of Systematic Theology, and (pro tem.) of Ecclesiastical History.
Rev. I. E. Dwinell, D. D., Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology and (pro tem) of New Testament Greek.
Lectures are given frequently by leading pastors of the State.

Regular Studies. — First Year. Greek; Hebrew; Sacred Geography and Antiquities; Origin, History, Authority, Inspiration, and Canon of the Bible; Interpretation of the Scriptures; Religions of the World, other than the Christian; Natural Science; Mental and Moral Science.

Second Year. — Biblical Theology; Greek; Hebrew; Exercises in the Exposition of the Scriptures; Systematic Theology; History of Doctrines; Elocution.

Third Year. — Pastoral Theory; Church History; Church Polity; Homiletics; Elocution; Connection of Natural Science with Religion. [An exercise in Hebrew and Greek Exegesis once each week during the second and third years.]

Special Studies. — In special cases, particular and modified courses of instruction will be given to those who cannot remain three years, or who, for other reasons, cannot take the full course of three years; and these courses of instruction will be adapted to the necessities of each person, it being understood that every one of this class will continue his studies as long as practicable.

Preparatory Studies. — Young men who have not had the advantage of a collegiate course, and who are, for good reasons, debarred from the prospect of such a course, are enabled to pursue literary and scientific studies under the direction of the professors in the Hopkins Academy, immediately associated with the Seminary. These preparatory studies will vary with the requirements of each student.

Calendar. — The year consists of but one term, and begins with the first of September and ends with the middle of May. There will be a recess from the 20th of December to the 3d of January. Students should begin promptly with the term.

Terms of Admission. — Credible evidence of piety, membership in some evangelical church, a collegiate education, or such other literary and scientific attainments as promise a fair degree of usefulness, will entitle all young men to the advantages of this Seminary. The benefits of the institution are accorded alike to students of all denominations of Christians.

Expenses. — There will be no charge for tuition, rent of rooms, or use of furniture. The trustees will, as far as practicable, furnish text-books free to those who are in need, themselves being the judges of the necessity. Those who desire it can board on the premises at the rate of $3.00 per week. Fifty cents additional will be charged for washing.

Pecuniary Aid. — The American Education Society will render aid to the pupils of this Seminary who are needy, who are college graduates, and who take the full course of three years. The amount bestowed will be, when possible, $100 a year to each beneficiary. Six paying scholarships yield an average of about $130 each per year to six beneficiaries.

An endeavor is continually made to provide for all the wants of every young man who wishes to take the full course of study, and every such person is urged to come to the Seminary, whether he has any means of his own or not. It is believed that the necessary expenses of a Theological School are less here than anywhere else in the Union.

No happier situation is known than the one occupied by this Seminary. The climate is unequalled for stimulating qualities, for mildness, and for general fineness. It is favorable to study every month in the year. It is a cure for many forms of invalidism. The scenery about the site is not inferior to that of the far-famed Bay of Naples itself. Both the beauties and the grandeurs of nature are within reach; and, to some extent, those of man, also.

Relation to the University. — The Divinity School is one of the Departments of Yale College. Its members receive from the Corporation, on completing their three-years' course of study, the degree of B. D. They have access to the public collections of the University, such as the Library, the Peabody Museum, and the collection of paintings and statuary in the School of Fine Arts. They are permitted to attend, free of expense, so far as will not conflict with their professional studies, the lectures and recitations in the College and the Sheffield Scientific School, and, if expecting to become foreign missionaries, those of the Medical Department.

Course of Study. — The first year is devoted chiefly to the Exegesis of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures; the second to Systematic Theology, Church History, Biblical Theology, and Church Polity; the third to Sacred Rhetoric, New Testament, Biblical Theology, and the History of Christian Doctrine. Additional lectures on Preaching and other important subjects are delivered before all the classes by eminent ministers and scholars in this country and Europe. There are also optional classes conducted by the Professors, in New Testament Introduction, German, Syriac, and Chaldee. Once a week there is a rhetorical exercise for all the classes. Instruction in vocal culture and elocution is continued through the entire course.

Graduate or Fourth Year Class. — Students who have completed a three-years' course of theological study, here or elsewhere, are admitted to the Graduate Class, established five years since, in which advanced studies in Theology are pursued under the direction of the Professors.

The Libraries of the University, to which the students have access, including the Reference Library of the Divinity School, contain over 150,000 volumes.

A Graduate Fellowship, for the encouragement of further theological study in this country or abroad, the income of which is $500 for one year after graduation, is offered to the class entering in September, 1885.

Expenses. — There is no charge for instruction, use of libraries, or room rent. The rooms, which will accommodate one hundred and fifty students, are designed in general for only one occupant. Each room has a bedroom attached, and is carpeted and furnished with all needful furniture except bedclothing. The chief expenses for the session are for board $3.00 to $3.50 a week; fuel and light, $25 to $30; and $10 a year for care of room and incidental expenses.

Scholarship Funds and other aids. — Students whose circumstances require it are aided to the amount of $100 a year, from the income of scholarship funds. Additional aid to the amount of $75 is afforded by the American Educational Society to its beneficiaries.

Commencement of the Term. — The present annual term of study began on Thursday, Sept. 18, 1884, and continues till the third Thursday in May (Anniversary), when the vacation of four months, in which the students have the opportunity to engage in some form of remunerative labor, will commence. The next annual term will begin on Thursday, Sept. 24, 1885.

Application for Admission. — The Seminary is open on equal terms to students of all Christian denominations. Applications for admission, or for the annual Catalogue containing further information, may be made to the Secretary, Prof. George E. Day, New Haven, Conn., or to any other member of the Faculty.

* A dash in the column of colleges implies that the student has never been connected with any college; the name of a college followed by a dash in place of year implies that the student was connected with that college, but did not complete the course. An interrogation point in the place of year of graduation implies that the person is a graduate, but we do not know the year; this is found only in the Yale Seminary list, the only one that does not give this information. A more precise list of the colleges and universities is on pages 73 and 75.

THE ANNUAL STATISTICS OF THE CHURCHES AND MINISTERS.

THE following pages contain the statistics as collected in 1884 by the statistical secretaries of the several State organizations, and compiled for this publication by the secretary of the National Council, under vote of the publishing committee appointed by the Council.

The secretary, as heretofore, in no case presumes to insert or omit the name of church or minister on any authority but that of the State secretaries, representing their own organizations, or of Councils subsequent to the date of annual reports.

The contents of the statistics are as follows: —

1. The Statistics of the Churches and Pastors, by States.
2. List of Foreign Missionaries, arranged by Missions.
3. General Summary Tables for the year.
4. Tables of Summaries, 1858-1884.
5. Remarks upon the Statistics and Minor Explanations.
6. The National, State and Local Organizations of the Churches, with Officers, and dates of sessions in 1884.
7. Alphabetical List of Ministers, with P. O. address, and indexed to pages.
8. Alphabetical List of Licentiates.

RULES OF COMPILATION.

1. To arrange in alphabetical order everything capable of it; except that the churches in any one town or city are placed according to age.

2. To make each State list to conform strictly to the State boundaries. Churches or ministers reported by the Association of a State other than their own are, therefore, transferred to their proper places; and the summaries are correspondingly corrected.

3. To make new tables each year. "Last year's report" (if known to be such) is always omitted No allowance is made for the membership of any non-reporting church or Sunday school, except such as is made by the State secretaries, who are the proper judges of its propriety. The list of churches of this year is compared, name by name, with that of last year, and all variations are specifically mentioned with the State summary, so that each church can be traced from year to year.

4. To examine carefully all the tables, with a view to correction or addition by correspondence, especially to correct "pastoral supply" to the latest moment. Proof-sheets have been sent to secretaries and some Home Mission superintendents who could be reached in season. But no such changes have been allowed to affect the summaries.

5. To complete the statistics by (1) giving in some form every statistical fact obtainable, — items given by some States, but not by all, being aggregated with the respective State summaries; and (2) putting into finished State and general summaries, with "totals" in all cases, everything capable of it; so that no person in search of any statistical fact shall be obliged to perform any arithmetical calculation to find it.

MINOR EXPLANATIONS.

1. Any church given in brackets is one organized since the date of State report; not included in the summary, but inserted for information. A few churches temporarily not associated are inserted by their own wish.

2. Installed pastors are marked "p," or "i," pastors recognized, "rec."; others in service are not marked. Blanks in the column of pastoral supply, meaning no regularly engaged minister, are left blank for the convenience of those who note pastoral changes.

3. Post-office addresses of ministers in pastoral service are not found in the tables of churches, but in the General Alphabetical List of Ministers.

4. The two columns following the names of ministers in the tables of churches denote (1) the year of ordination, (2) the year when the minister was installed, or commenced service with that church.

5. A star (*) prefixed to the name of a minister in pastoral service, not installed, implies that he is not a member of any organization of churches or ministers in that State; but not many States so designate in the tables. A star similarly prefixed in the General Alphabetical List of Ministers denotes that he is found in the original State alphabetical list, but is reported not to be a member of any such organization in the United States; or that he is found supplying some church, but is not in the State alphabetical list.

6. Licentiates are not reckoned as ministers. Churches supplied by such, or by ministers of other denominations, are reckoned as vacant; but the number of such churches is given in each State summary. No ministers of other denominations (if so known) are inserted in the General Alphabetical List. Some ministers belong to the two denominations at once.

7. The names of some Congregational ministers are, doubtless, missing; but it is solely because they are not reported by any organization of churches or ministers.

8. Under "Church Members," "Absent" are included in "Males," "Females," and "Total." "Additions," "Removals," and "Baptisms" cover the twelve months next preceding the date of report given with the name of each State.

9. Blanks in any column of figures are such as were so left in the State Minutes. They ought always to signify "no report," but some States do not follow the proper rule of inserting a cipher where "none" is meant, and the examiner must conjecture, in any given case, whether "none" or "no report" is intended. In our General Summaries, a blank invariably signifies "no report."

10. A vigorous effort has been made this year to give, with the name of a church, its post-office address if it be different from the name of place given. The effort is greatly, but not entirely successful. It will be tried again next year.

NOTES. — 1. The distinction is made between contributions for benevolent purposes and moneys raised for any home expenses. For instance, money given to the general Sabbath-school cause is benevolent; money expended by a church in supporting its own Sabbath school is a home expenditure, as much as a pastor's salary.

2. The amount of Home Expenditure does not mean all that is spent in a given place, but solely what is raised by a church itself, exclusive of all outside aid.

3. The amounts reported above for the specific objects of benevolence are such as are reported (and added up) by the State organizations, and are below the facts. They are inserted as indicating proportions, but are not worth adding up. It should be noted that in some States the sums were amounts contributed to a particular society; in others, for causes represented by that society, — a distinction which we cannot preserve this year. Some States so group objects that some items cannot be distinguished.

4. It will be seen that the reports are very imperfect. Many churches make no report.

NOTE.—But few States reported the items for this important table. The ordinations, etc., for those not reporting, are therefore compiled from preceding lists.

Lists of new and dropped churches are given with the Summary of each State.

The gains marked "a" above are only gain in reports, being gain over "no report" last year. The losses marked "b" are, similarly, loss by such as reported last year, but make no report this year.

Blanks signify no report, and our necessary ignorance.

The total of Members is greater than the sum of males and females, and total additions and removals are sometimes greater than the sum of particulars, because totals are sometimes reported alone. The proportion of males and females is, however, correct. "Absent" are included in males, females, and total.

As to "Contributions" and "Home Expenditures," in this table, it will be seen that it is more an exhibit of the number of churches reporting than of totals raised. Before the issue of 1867, one half of the churches did not report either item; many States did not have the item in their schedules. Of the decrease in benevolent contributions reported, the larger part is due to one church in Norwich, Conn.

In this table, the "new" churches are occasionally such as were previously "dropped."

Under "Died" (Ministers), until 1873 no count was kept to distinguish between "acting pastors" and "without charge." The difference between "pastors" and "totals" includes these two classes. The fluctuations under "Benevolent Contributions" are greatly due to more or less full reports. See the annual number of churches reporting, in table next above.

LIST OF CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS IN THE UNITED STATES.

REPORTED BY THE SEVERAL STATE ORGANIZATIONS.

The following is a compilation of the alphabetical lists furnished by the State Associations and Conferences, corrected by correspondence with their secretaries to the latest possible date. The secretary of the Council in no case presumes to insert or omit a name upon his own responsibility. The State organizations (or later Councils) are alone responsible; but the secretary has used his utmost endeavors to obtain a complete and correct list. If any names are omitted, it is because they are not reported by any organization in any State.

The figures refer to pages where the name will be found in the tables, in the Vital Statistics, in the service of the Benevolent Societies, of the Theological Seminaries, or in the list of foreign missionaries. In some cases the page is left as in tables, when the post-office is changed since the tables were put to press.

Names starred (*) are of persons who, although mentioned (usually as supplying churches), are reported to be members of no organization of Congregational churches or ministers.

Some post-office addresses are antiquated; but it is the best that could be done.

Licentiates are not included in this list, nor are ministers of other denominations.

A list of licentiates follows this list.

Names of persons in last year's list, deceased since the issue of 1884, are retained, and are indexed to the pages of the "Vital Statistics."

Some errors will be found in first names, initials, and spelling. No pains have been spared to secure accuracy; but, efforts failing, the compiler has not ventured to follow even his own convictions, against the unmistakable testimony of the reports.

Names differing only in use of final "e," as Clark, Clarke, are treated as one name but spelled according to report.

Letters for our missionaries will be addressed to the care of society mentioned with the name, such societies (initials) being (as are all foreign addresses) in italics.

Ministers without change are indicated by the year of ordination. This date, following the name, takes the place of the page reference, used in case of those who are named in the preceding tables. The two classes of ministers, those in charge of churches, and those who have no charge, are thus conveniently distinguished in this list, the former by a page number, and the latter by the year of ordination, against their names.

LIST OF LICENTIATES REPORTED.

THIS list contains the names of those apparently reported as under care, with references to the pages where any such are mentioned as supplying churches. It includes also some names starred (*), which denotes that these persons, while reported as supplying churches, are not reported to be approbated by, or under the care of, any Congregational organization.

Further, 1. This list does not agree with the number given in State Minutes, because all ordained since the lists were reported are here dropped. 2. The post-office addresses are often delusive, the place being that of temporary service only. 3. Names followed by State only are of persons approved in the State mentioned, no residence being reported. 4. The list is incomplete, because some States make no full report of licentiates. 5. The contracted name of a State in brackets means that the name was reported by that State, although the person resides elsewhere.

WE do not propose, in the limits of this page, to describe all of our various hymn and tune books. We would suggest, however, that our publications cover all the branches of the service of song in the church; we have books for the great congregation, for the prayer-meeting, and for the Sunday school. Dr. Robinson's "Laudes Domini" is our latest issue, and while it succeeds "Spiritual Songs for Church and Choir" in the order of its publication, it is by no means expected to supersede it. To "Laudes Domini" Dr. Robinson has given a high class of music, which, while filling the wants of many churches, may not be best fitted to others. The wealth of new hymns and exquisite tunes in "Laudes Domini" will surprise the examiner.

An edition of "Spiritual Songs for Church and Choir" containing hymns only has just been published, — a pretty little book, well bound and well printed, and costing 35 cents in quantities. The hymn and tune edition costs only $1.00. To churches who cannot afford even this expense, we would cordially commend our "Spiritual Songs for Social Worship," an abridgment of the large book, containing more than 500 hymns and 300 tunes, and including hymns for all of the ordinances, with full indexes. This is really a book for the prayer-meeting, and as such is said to be perfection, but it is being used by hundreds of churches for all services with great success. Our Sunday-school book, "Spiritual Songs for the Sunday School," has become a standard.

It is estimated that more than a million copies of Dr. Robinson's hymn and tune books are now used by the churches of America. The Rev. Judson Titsworth, of Milwaukee, Wis., writing to the publishers, says: "You will make us all believers in evolution, if you keep on developing on the line of Dr. Robinson's work. From 'Songs of the Church' to 'Laudes Domini,' what a triumphal march of church music; through how many (at the time) best books. Are there any possibilities ahead of us? It would seem as if there could not be." The Rev. F. N. Peloubet writes: "I have long been an admirer of Dr. Robinson's hymn and tune books. He has a genius for such work, and the results will go down the ages. I have used Dr. Robinson's books for over fifteen years in my church."

We would again call attention to the fact that, as we have a continuous demand for second-hand copies of "Songs for the Sanctuary," we are always ready to make liberal allowance for it when our newer books are purchased.

For any information about hymn and tune books, specimen copies, etc., write to The Century Co., 33 East 17th Street, New York.

OBERLIN COLLEGE,

OBERLIN, OHIO.

DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY. — Instruction is given by the President, five Professors, and eminent special lecturers, appointed from year to year. Students have commodious furnished rooms in COUNCIL HALL, which is devoted exclusively to the uses of this department. They have free access to all the classes, libraries, and cabinets of the other departments. Three months during the summer can be spent in home-missionary or other labor, with compensation, without interference with studies. The demand for such labor is greater than the supply. During the last half of the course, the students have frequent opportunities to supply the neighboring churches. Students who need pecuniary assistance receive the usual aid from the American Educational Society, and such appropriations from special funds under the control of the Seminary as enable them, with reasonable prudence and economy, to pursue their course without interruption or embarrassment.

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY AND THE ARTS. — Fifteen Professors give instruction in this department. The Classical Course embraces the studies of our best colleges, so arranged that after the Freshman year the student may, by elective studies, give a classical or scientific character to his course, receiving the degree of A. B. at its close. For entrance, three years of Latin, two of Greek, and one term of Geometry are necessary. The Literary Course is like the above, with the exception that no Greek and less Latin are required, and graduates receive a diploma instead of a degree.

DEPARTMENT OF PREPARATORY INSTRUCTION. — Comprises a Classical School, which prepares students for the best colleges, and an English School, which prepares students for the Literary Course in the Department of Philosophy and the Arts; and offers the advantages of a first-class academy to those who can spend but a little time at school. Instruction is given by the Principal of this department, seven tutors, and about twenty-five special teachers.

Expenses in all departments for tuition, incidentals, and board are very low. Students who do not wish to take a full course can select such studies in any department as they are prepared to pursue to advantage. Both sexes admitted. Location healthful, and religious influences the best. No drinking saloons in town. Circulars with full information sent free by Mr. J. B. T. MARSH, Secretary.

The Howard University,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

OBJECT. — To furnish education to the colored race, without excluding others. Both sexes received in all the departments. Industrial training imparted as well as book knowledge.

DEPARTMENTS. — There are three Academic Departments: Normal, Preparatory, and Collegiate. There are three Professional Departments: Those of Theology, Law, and Medicine. That of Theology is principally supported by the American Missionary Association. No tuition is charged except for Law and Medicine. Number of students, four hundred.

WANTS. — There is no debt on its extensive grounds and buildings, but endowments are needed for its professorships, its library, and its student aid. Annual donations of money and clothing for students are solicited from individuals and churches. For catalogue or information address,
